DEPARTMENT TENNIS
MEN OPEN SCHEDULE
FOR SUMMER TODAY

Thirteen Teams to Play Three Times a Week in Doubles Competition.

Departmental League tennis players will open the season at 3:30 o'clock today, when five doubles teams representing the Agricultural Department and five from the Interstate Commerce Commission, clash on the municipal courts for the initial matches of a thirty-nine match schedule. Immediately following, at 5 o'clock, Justice will meet Treasury.

Matches are to be held Monday, Wednesday and Friday of each week up till August 11; the schedule providing that each of the thirteen department clubs meet every other club at least once.

The clubs are: Interior, Smithsonian, Justice, Treasury, Labor-State, Commerce, War, Commissioners, Agriculture, Navy, Interstate Commerce, Government Printing Office, and Post Office.

Each department club is to be represented in the matches by ten players, paired off into five doubles teams. Contests are to be commenced on each match day at 3:30 o'clock. All of the competitors are to be staged on the municipal courts, according to present arrangements.

Following today's contests the Labor-State players will meet the Commerce racketeers at 3:30 o'clock, Wednesday, and the War will take on the Commissioners at 5 o'clock, the same day.

The league which is getting under way today is the largest tennis organization in the United States, more than fifteen hundred players being affiliated with it in an active capacity. It includes in its ranks some of the foremost of local racketeers, among whom may be mentioned Al Gore, runner-up in the District championships last year; Lou Doyle, organizer of the league, and H. W. Barber and Tracy who play on the Departmental League team.

On Wednesday the second brace of matches of the newly formed Washington Tennis Association, will be played, Dumbarton to meet Chevy Chase on the letter's courts; Columbia to play Departmental, at Columbia. These matches were scheduled for Saturday, but were moved forward, as the Chevy Chase team is slated to play in Philadelphia on that date. In the initial contests of this circuit, Dumbarton defeated Departmental eight out of the nine matches, and Columbia downed Chevy Chase. The W. T. A. schedule calls for the third pair of matches in June, on the 10th; for three in July, on the 15th, 20th, and 25th; for two in August, the 12th and 28th, and for the wind-up contests on September 30.

One week from today the women's open championship golf tournament—the first event of its kind ever held in the city—will be put under way at the Chevy Chase Club. The tourney will be conducted under the auspices of the District of Columbia Golf Association. The local clubs have staged closed competitions for their women golfers on a number of occasions, and provision has been made for the feminine devotees of the sport, in several of the championship tourneys. This will be the first time, however, that a special title tourney has been held exclusively for women in Washington.

A number of the most enthusiastic golfers at the Chevy Chase and Columbia Country Clubs are members of the fair sex, and may be expected to go into next week's competitions.

The middle Atlantic tennis championships, under the auspices of the United States National Lawn Tennis Association, will be staged, commencing Saturday, May 27, on the courts of the Columbia Country Club.

For the first time in the history of the association, the right of the middle Atlantic States to send a representative doubles team to the national preliminaries in Chicago, has been recognized, and the pair to survive the coming tourney will enter the Chicago competition with the necessary official status to qualify for the national championships at the West Side courts, Long Island, in August.

Provision has been made for events in men's singles, men's doubles, women's singles and women's doubles. In the men's singles class, last year, Connie Doyle qualified for the national competitions, defeating Al Gore in the final defeat at the hands of Paul Trener.

House Pages Win After Having Landed on Ball

The House Pages had a big inning in the sixth inning of yesterday's contest with the Senate Pages, and won the game when the Senate youngsters failed to take the field. The score was 9 to 7 in favor of the Senate players when five runs were made off Wallace.

The final score was 13 to 9 in favor of the House Pages. Garrett's home run was the feature of the battle. The score by innings:

Four Championship Contests Likely to Be Postponed on Account of Celebration—Catholic University Has Successful Trip Through North.

By BRYAN MORSE.

High school championship baseball games may be called off this week on account of the Shakespeare pageant, to be held beginning tomorrow and running through Friday. As there are many athletes in the celebration, it is thought that four games scheduled for the week will be postponed until next week.

The faculty advisers are meeting today at Tech to see just what can be done with the schedule in the event that the games are postponed. It may be that Central and Eastern will go through with their game tomorrow, providing none of the players are called upon to take part in the pageant.

Other matters of importance relative to the annual field and track games will be taken up by the advisers. There was a hope that Georgetown Field might be used for the games, but Charles Cox, graduate manager of the Hilltop, says that the cinder track is in no condition to stage a meet at present. Many loads of cinders have been recently dumped on the track, which is now too soft for use.

The location of Georgetown Field makes it desirable for use by the high schools. The Maryland Aggies have come to the rescue, however, with an offer of the use of their field at College Park.

Director of Athletics H. C. Byrd not only offered the use of the field, but guarantees a set of officials who have been conducting the M. A. C. meets.

Catholic University will have a day's rest today and will be sent against Villanova tomorrow. The Brooklanders have had an unusually successful trip, which will end on Wednesday with the Navy game at Annapolis. Coach Moran is deserving a world of credit for the development of one of the best teams C. U. has ever had on the diamond.

Coach George Green is undecided as to whether he will put his athletes in the Middle Atlantic championships in Philadelphia or will send them to Princeton. The campaign has proven unusually strenuous and it might be that the St. Albans athletes will rest up before going to Tome Institute, on May 20.

Brewer is rounding into shape after Saturday's lay-off, while Mazam will be rested up the greater part of the week. Wallace and Carter will be given the lightest sort of work during the weeks as they were on edge for the Penn' relays a week ago.

Tech is scheduled to meet Business tomorrow. The games on the Monument Lot will start this week if there are no postponements. It is possible that Central and Eastern will set in their battle tomorrow, even if Tech and Business are forced to call the game off.

Central is down for a game with the Gonzaga High School today and should have no trouble in winning. Tomorrow the Alexandria High School is slated to meet the Army and Navy Prep.

Judging from performances at College Park Saturday, Central is going to have its work cut out for it in the spring meet. While Tech failed to win first in all its races save one, the Manual Trainers showed unusual strength in the distances, which was Central's weakness.
